

20TH EDITION OF THE “Jaén, An Inland Paradise” INTERNATIONAL AWARD FOR COOKING WITH EXTRA VIRGIN OLIVE OIL

RULES

The Provincial Council of Jaén is holding the 20th edition of the “Jaén, an Inland Paradise” International Award for Cooking with Extra Virgin Olive Oil. The main objective of this accolade is to promote the extra virgin olive oil from the province of Jaén in the area of gastronomy, stimulating the creativity of national and international chefs.

Participants

Any chefs who are natural persons and who work in a hospitality establishment at the time of submitting their application to participate, and who have not previously won the first prize in the “Jaén, an Inland Paradise” International Awards for Cooking with Extra Virgin Olive Oil, may participate.

How to take part

By presenting a recipe which must include any of the “Jaén Selección 2023” olive oils. It must be an original recipe.

Only one recipe per chef will be admitted.

Registration is free.

Documentation, venue and deadline for presentation

Registration opens the day after the date on which the summary of the Competition Rules are published in the Official Gazette (Boletín Oficial, BOP) of the Province of Jaén, until 8 September 2023, and no applications will be accepted after this date.

Participants must register for the Competition via the website (<https://www.jaenparaisointerior.es/web/eventos-gastronomicos>) and the following documentation must be attached:

Prize

A Prize of €8,000 and a plaque will be awarded to the winner.

The Prize will be funded by the budgetary account 2023.742.4390.48907.

This Prize is compatible with any other subsidies, grants, deposits or resources from any public or private, national, EU or international public administrations or entities that may be awarded to the recipient following the bestowing of this Prize.

Process of awarding the Prize

Selection round

The Competition will have a first round, in which eight recipes will be selected to go through to the final round.

In the qualifying first stage, all of the applications will be assessed. To do this, the Judges will act in accordance with the following assessment criteria:

1. The recipes are prepared with the olive oils selected from the “Jaén Selección 2023” Tasting Competition. The pairing of the olive oil with the ingredients used in the recipe will be assessed.
2. The recipes must be practicable and understandable, in the opinion of the Judges.

3. The presentation and innovation of the dish will be assessed, as well as the correct use of each ingredient in the different stages of its preparation.

Final round

The final round of the Competition will take place live in front of the Judges and an audience, and will be held during the course of San Sebastián Gastronómica–Euskadi Basque Country (hereinafter SSG) on the morning of Wednesday 11 October 2023.

The eight chefs selected in the first round will take part in the final.

The draw that decides the order of participation of the finalists will be carried out in the presence of the individuals involved prior to the start of the final round.

In the final round, the Judges will evaluate the flavour, texture, temperature and appearance of the prepared dishes and the finalists' skills in the kitchen.

Each finalist will create one serving for each of the Judges plus one more to show to the media and audience present.

The SSG organising body will cover the accommodation costs for the finalist chefs, as well as facilitating their stay in SSG, and will expect them to take part in the scheduled activities.

The Provincial Council will provide the transport to and from the place of residence for each of the finalists participating in this final stage. This contribution will be made via the credit from contract CO-2020/1589, budgetary application 2023.410.9200.22699.

Timing / location / process

- The participants will have 75 minutes in which to prepare their dishes.
- The final round will take place in two different venues: the central kitchen at the Kursaal, where the participants will have 45 minutes to make preparations, carry out the mise en place, etc.; and the Judging Area, where they will have 30 minutes to complete and plate up their dishes.
- Both kitchens will be suitably equipped with all of the items necessary for the participants to compete in the final round. The organisers will send the participants a list of all of the devices, utensils, etc. that will be provided. Specific devices, tableware, etc. can also be brought, provided the organisers have been duly informed.
- The oils used in preparing the recipe will appear exclusively in the bottles of each of the brands used.
- The participants may bring prepared ingredients that require a preparation time of longer than one hour (stock, free-dried ingredients, etc.). These must be specified in the recipe.

- Finalists must wear suitable professional clothing. The organisers will provide each participant with an apron bearing the Competition logo. These aprons must be worn.
- When presenting their dish, the finalists must explain the ingredients used, the techniques employed, the pairing of the chosen oils and, in general, everything that enables the Judges to apply the established criteria.
- If a participant is unable to prepare and complete their dish within the allotted time, the Judges will disqualify them.

Judges

For both rounds in the Competition, the panel of Judges will consist of the following:

- The Councillor serving as Head of the Promotion and Tourism Department, who will act as Chair.
- The winner of the 19th edition of the “Jaén, an Inland Paradise” International Award for Cooking with Extra Virgin Olive Oil.
- Four renowned chefs or media figures specialising in the world of gastronomy.
- A Specialist Council Officer from the Promotion and Tourism Department, who will act as Secretary (he/she will not sample the dishes).

The identity of the Judges for each of the two rounds will be established by means of a decision taken by the President of the Provincial Council of Jaén, which will be published in the BOP of the Province of Jaén at least five days before each of the rounds in this competition. The Judges will not be paid for their involvement in the Competition, and may be changed for any of the rounds.

The actions of the Judges will be regulated under Article 17 of Law 40/2015 of 1 October on the Legal Framework for the Public Sector.

The Judges for the final round will put forward a winner in accordance with the rating criteria contained in this call for entries, within a period of 15 days following the final stage of this Competition. The Judges’ proposed winner will be put forward to the competent body of the Provincial Council of Jaén for approval in the month following the issuing of the Judges’ proposal. The Competition may be declared void only in the event of a unanimous vote from the Judges. Otherwise, the Judges are obliged to put forward a winner.

In exceptional cases, the decision may differ from that proposed by the Judges, in which case the reasons for the decision must be stated in the Competition documentation. The decision will be published in the BOP and in accordance with the provisions of Article 45 of Law 39/2015 of 1 October on the Common Administrative Procedure of the Public Administrations.

As regards the recipes, the Council may reserve the rights of publication, retransmission, broadcasting or recording via any system, and may freely and exclusively sell and transfer the aforementioned rights, without limitation, to any person or entity, free of charge. To this end, application for entry will entail the granting of the above-mentioned rights.

The Prize will be handed to the winner, who must sign the corresponding document containing their personal details, the amount of the Prize and the tax deductions that must be made by law, among other considerations.
